

Mathematics

Disclaimer: This non-exhaustive list is meant to guide users and is not meant as a recommendation of any specific tool or vendor.

Numecon

<http://www.numicon.com/>

Numicon is a multi-sensory math program hands-on material for teaching numeracy, as well as many monographs on math skills. The Numicon Intervention Program has been developed to support every child, and is suitable for student with an intellectual impairment.

Touch math

<http://www.touchmath.com/>

Touch Math is a multi-sensory program that uses its signature Touch Points to engage students of all abilities and learning styles.
It is also suitable for student with mild intellectual impairment and autism.

This program is a step-by-step approach and covers: Counting • Addition • Subtraction • Place Value • Multiplication • Division • Time • Money • Fractions • Story Problems • Shapes • Sizes • Pre-algebra.